

Amy Erickson, an In-Jail Treatment Counselor, has been with United Community Services for six years. During the course of her service to UCS she's done her college internship and has been a Methadone Counselor and Access to Recovery Program Coordinator.

Amy has a bachelor's degree in Human Services from Grand View College, graduating in the top ten percent of her class and with Alpha Chi national honors. Previously Amy worked for EFR and House of Mercy as a case manager and resident counselor. She is the mother of one and dedicated to her profession.