

Eric Marquardt began his counseling career at UCS in 2007 as an intern. In 2008 Eric received his Associate Degree in Human Services from Des Moines Area community College and CADC from the Iowa Board of Certification as well as accepting a position as an Outpatient Counselor at UCS. Eric has been involved with the UCS Jail Treatment Program since 2007 in many capacities, including filling as group facilitator, post jail counselor, and most recently as a Men's Primary Counselor in the in-jail portion of the program. Eric has been an active member of the recovering community for over 6 years and has been described as enthusiastic and excited about his recovery. Eric is dedicated to instilling those same qualities into his client's recovery through his humorous yet sincere therapeutic style.
