

Gail Marske graduated from Iowa State University with a Bachelor's of Science degree in Child and Family Services. She has been working in the Substance Abuse field for the past six years. She started out as an Outpatient Primary Counselor for the House of Mercy in Des Moines, IA where she worked for four years. She then relocated to Chicago, Illinois where she worked as a Behavioral Health Counselor in a hospital detox and mental health setting. Gail relocated back to Iowa recently and began working for UCS in April of 2011. She currently works at the Knoxville location and enjoys the privilege of being a part of her client's recovery process. She has a passion for life as well as for others and hopes to spread a positive attitude and plant a seed wherever she goes.

Gail likes to have fun, both at work and in her personal life. She enjoys traveling with her husband, spending time with her family and friends and cheering for the Cyclones!
