

Sarah Lee, a native of Iowa graduated from the University of Northern Iowa in 2000 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in criminology and sociology. During her course work she interned with the Iowa Correctional Work Release Facility in Waterloo, Iowa working closely with the sex offender and substance abuse populations.

Since graduation Sarah has worked 6 years as a substance counselor with adolescents at Youth and Shelter Services in Ames, Iowa and as a juvenile court tracker. Sarah joined UCS in 2006 and has worked as a counselor in the in-jail and methadone programs. She is currently program supervisor of the in-jail treatment program. Sarah is a Certified Drug and Alcohol Counselor.

In her free time she enjoys traveling, reading and spending time with her family.