

Sue Alleman was born in California and has lived around the Des Moines area most of her life. She has three children, four grandchildren and 2 dogs.

Sue graduated from Des Moines Technical High School in Des Moines, Iowa. After High School she went through training to become a CMA at Methodist Hospital working at the Hospital for 5 yrs, then working at a Nursing Home for 10 yrs.

In 1985 Sue went to work for Generations Inc. going through training to become a Protective Service Worker. Sue worked for 20 years with children and their families involved with the foster care system.

Sue did volunteer work for The Family Violence Center for 2 yrs. as a Court Advocate for victims of abuse. Sue also volunteered with Parents Anonymous as a Parent Facilitator for 10 yrs.

Sue joined United Community Services, Inc. in 2005 and is currently the Office Manager.